

Section 10:

Social Security Administration (SSA) Benefits

Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI)

What it is – Social Security Disability Income (SSDI) is a federal income supplement program funded by payroll taxes for people who were previously employed but are now unable to work due to a significant physical or mental health condition. The Social Security Administration (SSA) will pay disability benefits to the applicant or their family if the applicant previously worked but is no longer able to do so and meets the eligibility requirements.

Eligibility – The diagnoses must be permanent, present, or expected to last a year or longer, or the diagnoses will result in death. The applicant must not have a partial or short-term disability status, meet the Social Security Administration's definition of a disability, and be under retirement age. To find out if you are eligible to receive SSDI, utilize the Benefit Eligibility Screening Tool (BEST) and answer the questions in the BEST Questionnaire. <https://ssabest.benefits.gov>

Applying for SSDI – Utilize one of the following options:

- Visit the SSI website <https://www.ssa.gov/benefits/disability>
- Call the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213, TTY 1-800-325-0778, TRS 1-800-772-1213
- Call your local Social Security Office to schedule an appointment by phone or in person; or

Supplemental Security Income for Children (SSI for Children)

What it is – Similar to regular SSI, SSI for children is a program designed to support minors under the age of 18 diagnosed with a disability with limited household income and resources.

Eligibility – The minor must be diagnosed with a disability (physical or mental) that limits their activity. The diagnoses must be permanent, present, or expected to last a year or longer, or the diagnoses will result in death.

Apply for SSI for Children – This is a two-step process. The first step will need to be completed prior to the conversation with a member of the Social Security Administration.

- Complete the Child Disability Report <https://secure.ssa.gov/apps6z/i3820/main.html>
- After the Child Disability Report is submitted, you will be contacted by phone in 3 to 5 business days from the SSA. On the call, they will review your submitted report, verify the household income and resources, and if you are approved to move to the next step help complete the SSI application.
